Important legal information

Initial Acceptance of Terms
By accessing the UBS Wealth Management Online Access Site (the “UBS Site”, the “Site”), you agree to the following terms and conditions herein. If you do not agree to all of these Terms and Conditions, you should not access any of the information on the Site.

Other agreements
These Terms and Conditions are in addition to (and do not replace or modify) any other agreement(s) you may have with UBS AG or any affiliates, subsidiaries, divisions or units thereof.

Pricing
Your account value excludes unpriced securities and other items not in your net account value (e.g., direct/private investments). Certain security prices are not updated daily. Interest bearing certificate of deposit positions are displayed at the market value rather than the value at maturity. If your account includes restricted securities, these are reflected in your account value at the market price of the unrestricted stock of the same issuer. This is an imputed value only and may differ substantially from the current market value of the restricted shares as such securities may be ineligible for resale, illiquid and/or subject to restrictions on resale/surrender which may substantially reduce their current market value.

The information available to you on the Site is provided for informational purposes and solely as a personal reference tool, and is subject to change without notice. UBS AG does not provide tax or legal advice. Please consult your own tax or legal advisor regarding your specific situation. No warranty is made with respect to any security prices provided. No investment or any other decisions should be made based solely on the contents of the Site. You should obtain advice from a qualified expert before making any investment decision.

No indication of future performance
The future performance of an investment cannot be deduced from previous market value, as the value of an investment may fall as well as rise. An investment may also lose value due to changes in rates of foreign exchange. UBS AG cannot guarantee that any capital invested will maintain or increase in value.

Changes to these Terms and Conditions

Your continued use of the Site thereafter will constitute your acceptance of the changes and your agreement to be bound by the Terms and Conditions, as amended.
